The MARYLAND GAZETTE,

EXPIRING:

[XXIst Year.] THURSDAY, October 10, 1765. [Nº. 1066.]

WE are forry, heartily forry, to acquaint the Public in general, and our good Cuftomers in particular, That this GAZETTE will not any longer be Publifhed [for fome Time] for Reafons already given, which cannot but be known. It is true, it might have liv'd Three more Weeks, before that Dooms Day, the dreadful Firft of November; but as this Week's Paper [Nº. 1066.] compleats the Year with all our old Cuftomers, as well as finifhes the Seven Years PARTNERSHIP in it, between the PRINTERS, and that difmal Day being near at Hand, it ceafes Now.

☞ A Paper by Way of POSTSCRIPT, SUPPLEMENT, or APPENDIX, to this GAZETTE, is defign'd to be Printed each Week, (without any Charge to the Cuftomers, in order to Publifh fome Advertifements, &c. &c.) until the above Time.

BOSTON, September 23.

IN Capt. Holme from London, is come about 14 Boxes of ftamped Paper, defigned for the Ufe of this Province, New-Hampfhire, and Rhode-Iland; —— thofe for Connecticut 'tis faid were to be forwarded in a Veffel bound to New-York. Capt. Holme was guarded in by the Jamaica Sloop of War and Gafpee Cutter, and now remains at Anchor in King Road under their Protection. 'Tis faid thefe deteftable Stamps are to be lodged at the Caftle, and there to remain till further Orders from Home, there being at prefent no Demand here for fuch a Superfluous Commodity.

On a Motion made and feconded, it was unanimously Voted, That the Hon. James Otis, Efq; the Moderator, the Hon. Samuel Welles, Efq; the Honourable Harrifon Gray, Efq; the Honourable Royall Tyler, Efq; Joshua Henfhaw, Efq; John Rowe, Efq; and Mr. Samuel Adams, be a Committee to draw up and tranfmit, by the firft Opportunity, to the Right Honourable General CONWAY, now one of his Majefty's Principal Secretaries of State, and to Colonel ISAAC BARRE, a Member of Parliament, feveral Addreffes, humbly expreffing the warmeft Thanks of this Metropolis of His Majefty's ancient and legal Province of the Maffachufetts-Bay, for their noble, generous, and truly patriotic Speeches, at the late Bar of the Houfe of Commons, in favour of the Colonies, their Rights and Privileges: And that correct Copies of the fame be defired, that they may be depofited among our moft valuable Archives. Alfo voted, That thofe Gentlemen Patriots, as foon as they can be obtained, be placed in Fanueil-Hall, as a ftanding Monument, to all Pofterity, of the Virtues and Juftice of our Benefactors, and a lafting Proof of our Gratitude.

Attefl. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-Clerk.

It is reported that Sir GEORGE SAVILLE, Sir WILLIAM BAKER, and fome others, Members of Parliament, fpoke in Favour of the Colonies as well as General CONWAY and Mr. BARRE; but it is only the Speeches of the latter Gentlemen that have as yet been feen in Print.

The happy Profpect of the great PITT's being again, under His Majefty, at the Head of Affairs, affords the ftrongeft Hopes, that the Grievances, which the Nation and her Colonies are under, will be redreffed, and that the Liberties of America will be reftored. It is the Opinion however of fome, that we ought to rejoice with Caution, for until the Eyes of the People at Home can be cleared from the Duft which has of late been thrown into them, the Stamp-Act, fo truly fhocking to the Colonies, will remain a Favourite with them. A Repeal of the Act is not certainly to be depended upon, therefore every prudent, juftifiable Expedient in our Power, muft ftill be ufed, to bring on, if poffible, fo neceffary an Event.

NEWPORT, September 23.

A Gentleman of Veracity and Knowledge in England writes, that he is aflured, from undoubted Authority, that the new Miniftry are determined to be very favourable to the Colonies, in particular with Regard to the Extenfion of their Commerce.

HARTFORD, September 23.

Laft Wednefday Afternoon, a large Company of able-bodied Men came to Town (on Horfeback) from the Eaftern Parts of this Government, and informed thofe who were willing to join them, that they were on their Way to New-Haven, to demand of the Stamp Officer of this Colony to refign his Office, that a Number of their Companions were gone on the lower Roads, and that they had all agreed to rendezvous at Branford the next Day [Thurfday] and that they fhould marry in Town that Night; they then difperfed to different Parts of the Town for Lodging. In the Evening, Advice was received, that Mr. Ingerfoll was on the Road in this Place, that he would be in Town the next Day, and that he intended to apply to the Aflembly for their Protection; and it being conjectured, that he might come in Town in the Night, to fhun the Mob (who he had heard were on their Way to pay him a Vifit) it was agreed that a Watch fhould patrole the Streets all Night, to prevent his coming in unnoticed, but they made no Difcoveries. On Thurfday Morning, the whole Body, including a conftderable Number from this Town, fet off, on their fuppofed Expedition, and in about an Hour met Mr. Ingerfoll, at the lower End of Weathersfield, (and for thofe know their Bufinefs) he at firft refufed to accompany, but it was infifted upon, that he fhould refign his Office of Stamp-Mafter, fo difagreeable to his Countrymen; after many Propofals, he delivered the Refignation mentioned below, which he read himfelf in the Hearing of the whole Company, he was then defired to accompany the Whole, [illegible] having done, the whole Body gave three Huzzas; Mr. Ingerfoll then went into a Houfe and refreshed with a Bowl of Punch. After this the Company, and Mr. Ingerfoll, as he was bound to Harvard, they would efcort him there, which they did, to the Number of almoft Five Hundred Perfons on Horfeback. After they arrived in Town, Mr. Ingerfoll again read his Refignation in Public, when three Huzzas more were given, and the whole Company immediately difperfed without making the leaft Difturbance.

Mr. Ingerfoll's (alias Negroman's) Refignation.

Weathersfield, September 19, 1765.

I DO hereby Promife, that I will never receive any Stamp'd Papers, which may arrive from Europe, in Confequence of an Act lately paffed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, for officiate in any Manner as Stamp-Mafter, or Diftributor of Stamps, within this Colony of Connecticut, either directly or indirectly. And

I do hereby notify the Inhabitants of this his Majefty's Colony of Connecticut, (notwithftanding the faid Office or Truft his been committed to me) not to apply to me, ever after, for any fuch ftamped Papers, hereby declaring, that I do refign faid Office, and execute thefe Prefents of my own free Will and Accord, without any Equivocation, or mental Reservation.

In Witnefs whereof I have hereunto fet my Hand. J. INGERSOLL.

PHILADELPHIA, October 3.

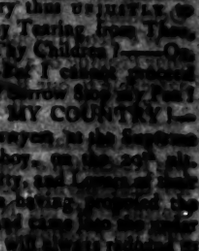
We hear that the STAMP'D PAPER for this Province is arrived in Capt. Hoblard, who lies at New-Caftle under the Protection of one of his Majefty's Sloops of War. It is impoffible to conceive the Confternation this melancholy News has diffus'd thro' this City —— Rage, Refentment and Grief, appeared painted in every Countenance, and the moderate Language of one and all the Inhabitants Seems to be FAREWELL! FAREWELL LIBERTY! —— AMERICA, AMERICA! Doomed by a preſumptive Sentence to SLAVERY! —— Was it thy Loyalty —— Thy Filial Obedience —— Thy Exhaufted Treafure —— and the Rivers of Blood fhed by Thy Sons, in extending the GLORY OF THE BRITISH ARMS, provoked Thy Mother-Country thus UNJUSTLY to jaroulus Thee in Diſtreſs, by Tearing from Thee, the Darling Privileges of Thy Children? —— Or, was it the Perfidy! —— But I cannot proceed —— Tears of Vexation and Sorrow ſtop my Pen! —— O! MY COUNTRY, MY COUNTRY!

At a Meeting of the Lawyers in the Supreme Court, held at Perth-Amboy, on the 29th inſtant, like true born Sons of Liberty, and Lovers of their Country, the Chief Juſtice having propoſed the following Queries, agreed and came into the reſolves mentioned Anſwers, which will always redound to their Honour.

Firſt. Whether if the Stamps ſhould arrive, and be placed in the City of Burlington, by the 1ſt of the firſt of November, they would, as Practitioners, agree to purchaſe them, or any of them, for the neceſſary Proceedings in the Law Courts?

Reſolved, by the whole Body, N. C. they would not, but rather ſuffer their private Intereſts to give Way to the Public Good; proceeding at the ſame Time againſt all ſuch Perſons, as ſhall Diſcountenance, by every Means in their Power, to preſerve Order, and by an Addreſs waiting on his Excellency the Governor, requeſting his Interpoſition to obtain a Repeal of the Law.



Second

Second. Whether it was their Opinion, that should the 2d 10th Part the Duties could possibly be paid in Gold and Silver?

Answered by the whole Body, It could not be paid in Gold and Silver even for one Year.

Third. Their Opinion was desired, whether as the Act required, the Governor and Chief Justice to superintend the Distributor, he should be obliged to take Charge of the Distribution of the Stamps by Order and Appointment of the Governor, if he should think proper to fix upon him for that Office?

Answered and advised not to take it upon him, the Governor not being impowered by the Act to appoint, or if he was, it was left to the Chief Justice's Option, and that it would be incompatible with his Office as Chief Justice.

We hear the Speaker of the New-Jersey Assembly has wrote to all the Members to meet at Prince-Town to appoint some of their Body to go to the Congress at New-York.

Capt. Moor, arrived here from Senegal, advises that there has been a Disturbance between our People and the Moors, which in May last came to an open Rupture, the Moors having attacked and carried a Fort, about 300 Miles up the River Senegal, called Padore, then drove all the English Vessels out of the River, and continue skirmishing with the English wherever they meet them. Some Time in May 7 or 800 of them attacked a Schooner, Capt. Devonshire, belonging to New-York, and laying at an Anchor in the River, killed and wounded five of his Men, and would have soon made a Sacrifice of the Rest, as about 200 of them, under the Fire of the Rest, had taken to the Water with an Intent to swim on board, and he being unable to make any Resistance, if Capt. Moor had not at that critical Time come to his Assistance, who being acquainted with a great Number of the Chiefs, went on Shore in his Boat through the thickest of the Fire, with fair Words and some Presents distributed among them, with which they were well pleased, they were persuaded to cease firing, then went off and left the Vessels to pursue their Business.

ANNAPOLIS, October 10.

The following ought to have been inserted in our Gazette last Week:

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of DELEGATES.

May it please your Excellency,

IN Answer to your Message just now received, relative to the Stamp'd Paper, we should think ourselves extremely happy were we in Circumstances to advise your Excellency on so new a Subject: But it being a Matter of Importance, and such as we do not think ourselves at Liberty to advise in, without the Instructions of our Constituents, which we cannot now obtain, we hope your Excellency will think us excuseable for declining to offer you any Advice upon the Occasion.

We return your Excellency Thanks for your Promise of a short Recess, at this Time, agreeable to our Request.

We are informed from Baltimore County, that on the 27th of August past, Anne Carlin, the Wife of Daniel Carlin of Bush River, gather'd, as she thought, some Mushrooms, which she dress'd and eat, as she had commonly done before; but at Night was taken Ill with a Vomiting and Purging, and Died on the third Day.

In the same County, some Years since, an old Man and Two young Women, eat of Mushrooms, as they thought; and the old Man having occasion immediately to set out on a Journey, was taken Ill at Night at the House where he put up; the People gave him warm Milk from the Cow, of which he drank plentifully, and recovered. The Two young Women were taken Ill about the same Time, and both Died.
